Mission Statement: (8/29/2006)

As a Vatican II Church, we strive to provide uplifting experiences where people gather to be nourished, to be given new hope, to be challenged by the Gospel and to be reenergized so that they can return to the world to fulfill Jesus' mission of loving God and loving humankind.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Alleluia! We are blessed to welcome Fr. Jim Sichko to our community this weekend and Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings. Fr. Jim is a priest from the Lexington Kentucky Diocese who travels much, inspiring people to live their faith. In this year of Eucharistic Revival, we are fortunate to have him come. He will be preaching at all the Masses and then speak each night for an hour starting at 6:30pm. Each night is different and it is not necessary to hear the first one to understand the second and third. Come and be inspired.

I am grateful to Jen Golka, the Catechists who helped her and the parents who helped prepare our children for First Holy Communion. It is always a joy to see their innocence and love for God.

As Religious Formation comes to an end for the academic year please note that there are other opportunities for children and families to keep growing in their faith. There will be summer activities like Vacation Bible School and M.A.D. Camp. Every registered household has access to FORMED.ORG which leads to what I call "NET Flicks for Catholics." There are blogs, series, Bible Studies, movies, books to read and books to listen to, as well as cartoons for all ages. I invite families to consider a FORMED NIGHT in their household each week to continue learning about our faith, the Saints and what the church teaches about the Sacraments. Learning never ends, even in the summertime.

God bless you all. Fr. Don Buhrman

HELP WANTED: Sue Kohles, our Office Manager, has informed Fr. Don of her plans to retire this summer. If you are interested in this full time position, please send your resume to the parish office. A job description is being finalized. If you have questions, contact Fr. Don Buhrman.

FOUND: In the north parking lot , a partial dental plate. Claim at front office.

Pray for Vocations

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

"There is no salvation through anyone else." Let us pray for those who are called to follow the Lord as a priest or religious brother or sister that they may generously say YES. Talk to Fr. Don or reach out to the Vocation Office at 308-234-1539 or email: vocations@gdiocese.org

Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to pray for our seminarians and ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead
- Keep Fr. Don and our seminarians in your prayers throughout the week
- Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister
- Participate in the rosary which is offered for vocations before weekday and weekend masses, for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call

If you know of a former parishioner or a family member of a current parishioner that has died and you have the permission to publish this information, please let us know and we will include it in the most recent bulletin so others may pray for the deceased and offer consolation to their family.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and may the perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. ~Amen

Catholic Home Missions Appeal collection next week

Next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, nearly 40% of dioceses in the U.S. and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Genesis 1:31

Remember the Three Rs
REDUCE
RECYCLE

You care for the land and water it; you enrich it abundantly. The streams of God are filled with water to provide the people with grain, for so you have ordained it. You drench its furrows and level its ridges; you soften it with showers and bless its crops. You crown the year with your bounty, and your carts overflow with abundance. The grasslands of the desert overflow; the hills are clothed with gladness. The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with grain; they shout for joy and sing.
Psalm 65:9-13

Cases for CASA

When children are removed from their home and placed into foster care most of the time they have to leave in a hurry without gathering their belongings or all their belongings are put into a garbage bag. For the month of April, we will be accepting donations to provide Heartland CASA with CASES for children. Donations needed:

- ◆ Hygiene products (shampoo, conditioner, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrush, hair comb)
- ◆ Feminine hygiene products

- ◆ Activities for children or teenagers (coloring books, crayons, puzzles, cards, board games, crossroad puzzles)

There are 2 suitcases set up in the gathering area for your donations. We are accepting donations until Friday, April 26. Thank you!
