Mission Statement: (8/29/2006)

As a Vatican II Church, we strive to provide uplifting experiences where people gather to be nourished, to be given new hope, to be challenged by the Gospel and to be reenergized so that they can return to the world to fulfill Jesus' mission of loving God and loving humankind.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

This weekend concludes the shortest Advent possible and rejoices in the Nativity of our Savior, Jesus Christ. I take this time to express my gratitude for all my Staff and the many volunteers who work so hard to make our Liturgies beautiful and inspiring. Through the Advent season many have shared their time, talents and treasure to help make Christmas better for others through the Giving Tree, Advent Night participation, The Advent Encounters with Christ and more. We are a blessed parish and we have many reasons to be grateful.

On a personal note, thank you for all the prayers and affirmations especially in this last week. It has been busy but that is why I'm here. I am also grateful for the cards and notes as well as the gifts for Christmas. You are a thoughtful and generous people. May God bless you abundantly.

My prayers continue for you all. Have a Merry Christmas and enjoy the gifts, especially the nurturing of faith.

Fr. Don Buhrman

Merry Christmas

From the staff at St. Leo's!

PROMPTS FOR FAITH-SHARING:

Dec. 24, 2023, Fourth Sunday of Advent

- * What discomforts and uncertainties has God asked you to sit with in this season of your life?
- * What discomforts and uncertainties have you overcome? How might God be calling you to support others with similar trials?
- * Advent, the season of liturgical waiting, is coming to an end, but most of us will still be waiting for God in some way as we move into the Christmas season. How are you still waiting for God? How do you hope God will appear in your life?

Holy Innocents Mass to be Dec. 28

A bilingual Mass will be at 5:15 p.m. Dec. 28 at St. Mary's Cathedral in honor of the Feast of the Holy Innocents. The Holy Innocents, patrons of children, babies and foundlings, are the young male children from Bethlehem who were put to death by King Herod. Many families struggle with miscarriage, still birth, infant death or even abortion. This Mass of healing and hope is to pray with families to celebrate the brief lives of these children, and to seek God's mercy and hope. Anyone who would like to have their baby or loved one remembered during the Mass may call the Cathedral Office at 308-384-2523. For more information, contact the pro-life office at 308.382.6565 or go to <https://gidiocese.org/pro-life>

Food for Thought

"Christ is both the priest, offering Himself, and Himself the Victim. He willed that the sacramental sign of this should be the daily sacrifice of the Church"

St. Augustine

OUTREACH

"Let us reach out personally to the hungry and the homeless, to the poor and the powerless, and to the troubled and the vulnerable. In serving them, we serve Christ. Our service efforts cannot substitute for... just public policies, but they can help us practice what we preach about human life and human dignity."

Economic Justice for All, U.S. Catholic Bishops, 1986, #26.

Thank you The Giving Tree 2023

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Giving Tree this year! And thank you for all of your food donations to the St. Mary's Food Pantry!

Emergency Rental Assistance Program

Did you know that Nebraska has a program called Emergency Rental Assistance that helps individuals with their back rent and possibly 2-3 future rent payments? This program has already helped many people and fewer people have come to us for assistance. An individual has to have been affected by COVID, but honestly we all have been affected in some way. If you know someone in need of rental assistance, please send them to this website to complete an application <https://nebraskarenthelp.org/>

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Christmas | Sacred Art

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they look at the painting Adoration of the Shepherds by Gerard van Honthorst to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord. This famous painting reveals the Christ Child as the light that has come into the world and also depicts the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, and the shepherds to be models of adoration to our humble Lord who came as a helpless baby.

The 12 Days of Christmas

We are excited to announce our series of FORMED Now! Christmas and New Year special episodes. In these episodes, professors from the Augustine Institute Graduate School will lead us in reflections throughout the season.

A Spiritual Bouquet

As a special and spiritual gift, Sister Carlene Headrick, SFCC, will share the blessings and graces of 900 Masses offered by missionary priests throughout the world beginning on Christmas Eve and continuing through the Holy Season for all the members of St. Leo's Parish.
