Unlike human beings who are born and who die, God existed in the past, exists in the present and will exist in the future.

Find what God declared about Himself.
Starting with "I" follow the arrows through the boxes.

Many words could describe God's endless existence.

Arrange the given words on the lines so that all letters which appear more than once in a word are circled. A word God uses to describe Himself in Revelation 1:8 will appear in the vertical box.
